

CHAMPION ANNUAL

1945

To my Pal Jan -

We have had some most old times together at your house and also the cabin - especially after the foot ball games and the tournaments and the basketball game - I wish I had of come to the cabin a little early the night of the tournament, I guess I really missed out on something - But the night Astoria was down was a good deal so it really made up for it. I hope you and Martin can get together Saturday night as I know you are just his type. - too bad your enemy so you won't be able to go into the Cadet Nurse Corp with me - But have a good time in college - Love
Monkman

Janet Kirk

To a good friend
I wish all the good happens - the six the good your pair - since I cut for me + I'll make money win, cause I just love! If

Dear Jan -

You are one swell girl and what a cabin! I've had loads of fun with you on various occasions, and hope to have more, too. Good luck next year!

Betty J

To a swell charming redhead
I won't forget those times out at your cabin
Harry "Kiedwaiger"
P.S. all red heads are charming but you out charm them all

Cooperation between the faculty and students of Salem High is the foundation of our school life.

Mr. Harry B. Johnson

principal

This annual is a record of happy events. The memories and reminders contained herein will be recognized many times as the happiest in your experience. As you advance in years you will more and more realize that high school days are the days when you really had enjoyable times.

This page represents a department of the school that seems remote from the individual student, and yet, in a sense is closer than many other divisions. The principal, the deans, and the office staff in general see the school as a whole. The keeping of the records, looking after the personal needs of everyone, organizing, encouraging, consoling, helping to plan are some of the multitude of jobs that clear through the office staff.

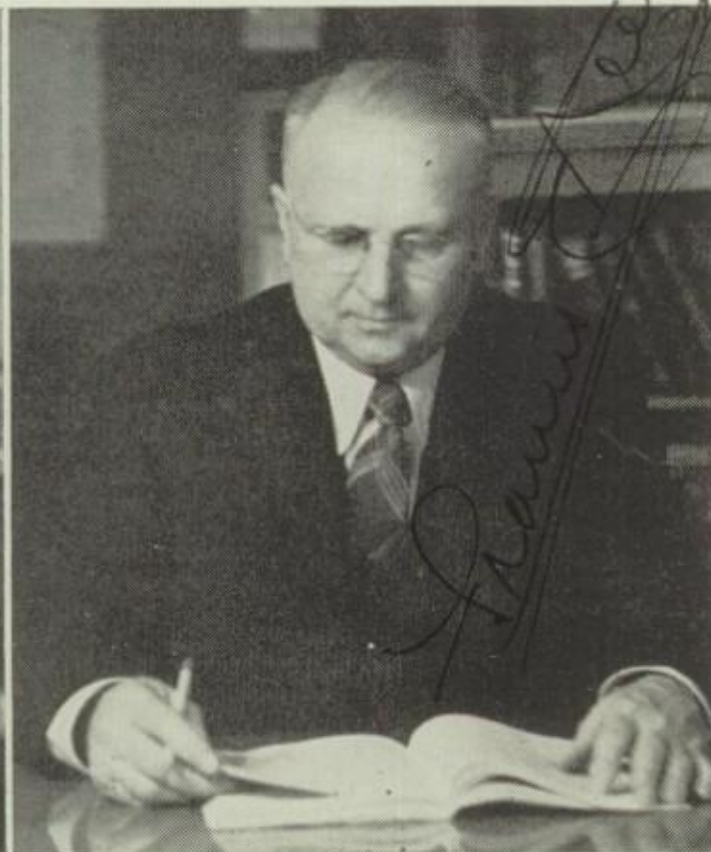

It was but a short time ago that I became a member of this school. The fine spirit very well exemplified in this book has helped me to gain enjoyment from my work. It is my hope that I have contributed something to make high school life worthwhile.

Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Frank B. Bennett
superintendent of schools

The mark of a great school is the character of its students and the leadership of its faculty. In these respects Salem can be justly proud. When one adds to these the excellent building and equipment of our senior high school, we indeed must recognize our great opportunity and responsibility.

We have, however, additional promise in post-war development of minor but important additions to our plant and the development of a splendid athletic field with new grandstands, turf, and lighted field. When these developments are accomplished, Salem will indeed have physical properties affording the best in education.

The administration eagerly joins with student body and faculty in our common purpose to attain real excellence for Salem High School.

Senior Officers

Council

Led through their final year at "ye old Vik Villa" by President Arthur "Hap" Englebart, the class of 1945 brought to a close a highly successful three years of high school. Vice-president Jeanne Foster capably kept up the social affairs and activities of the class. Events were a class banquet, a dance, and a gigantic pencil sale, all of which were climaxed in the spring by the Farewell Banquet, and the Senior Class Farewell Assembly. Carolyn Carson proved a competent secretary. Tom Boardman, as treasurer, managed the various monetary affairs of the class, and Art Gottfried served as sergeant at arms. Preceding his induction into the navy in December, Jim Shawver filled the position of forensic manager. Jacqueline Torgerson was class song queen. Senior class representatives to the A.S.B. Council were Connie Cocking, Ruby Burnham, and Loren Helmhout. From the 576 students enrolled as Sophomores three years ago, the class has dwindled down to a total graduating body of 368. This unusual decrease may be attributed to the fact that increasing numbers of senior boys have entered our armed services. Serving on the Senior Class Council were Frank Bales, Bill Barlow, Dorothy Boyes, Jim Bradshaw, Don Estridge, Dessa Lee Holmes, Betty Lou Kayser, Lee Nash, Bob Odle, Leonard Perlich, Janet Rilea, Jack Slater, Patricia Van de Coevering, and Harry Wiedmaier.

Junior Class
Council

Ending an active year with the sponsorship of the annual Junior-Senior Prom, the class of '46 looks expectantly forward to their next and final year at Salem high. With considerable aid from the art department, and diligent work by the various committees, the prom proved to be one of the most successful in years. Other junior class activities, which helped to keep the S.H.S. social wheel rolling included a class dinner and party in November, Interclass Rivalry in January and a dance in April. The '44-'45 class officers were: president, Bob Thompson; vice-president, Betty Lou Edwards; secretary, Joan Randall; treasurer, Frank Deckabach; forensic manager, Benny Lambert; sergeant at arms, Don Pickett; song queen, Doris Dixon; yell leader, Don MacLaughlin; and A.S.B. representatives, Harriet Huston, Bill Merriam and William Wilson. Junior class council members were Allan Bellinger, Dorothy Bergsvik, Joe Brazie, Jim Bunnell, Norma Cass, Dick Close, Conrad Cook, Virgil Cook, Tom Faught, Don Graves, Bob Hill, Pat Larson, Ingrid Olson, Peggy Paxson, Patsy Pearson, Mary Reimann, Peggy Sears, Barbara Upjohn, and Elaine Winkle. Miss Liliam Davis, Miss Lois Fellows, and Mr. George Brant were the advisers.

Sophomore

May 1945 finds our Sophomores assuming a greater dignity in anticipation of their next step up the rung of the Salem High ladder. The class of 1947 can review with pleasure their calendar of varied, well planned activities. A dinner and party on November 18th and interclass rivalry in March mark some of the year's highlights. Not to be forgotten was the Soph-Faculty game in which Salem High reviewed humanized teachers in a brief moment of physical exertion.

Officers of the year were: president, Dick Hendrie; vice president, Roberta Tussing; secretary, Lorraine Poindexter; treasurer, Earl Shaefer; forensic manager, Gary Keppinger, sergeant at arms, Roger Dasch; song leaders, Pat and Doris Hale, and yell leader, Danny Valdez. George Zurlinden and Warren Bacon represented the class on the A.S.B. Council.

The ASB officers of 1944-45 again put the war effort foremost in their minds. It was due to the untiring effort of president Bob Macy and his fellow officers that Salem High's $20,000 bond quota was oversubscribed. Even during the stress of war, vice president Addyse Lane was able to give the students a well-rounded social program. Helen Paulson capably filled the position of secretary, and a very successful handling of the ticket sales was conducted by forensic manager, Doug Berwick. Order was maintained at all assemblies and council meetings by sergeant-at-arms, Bill Barlow.

The ASB officers and council were the governing body of the school. During the year they met at specific times to pass upon all affairs and activities of the school. Members of the council were as follows: Connie Cocking, Ruby Burnham and Loren Helmhout capably represented the Seniors; Harriet Huston, William Wilson, and Bill Merriam gave their opinions for the Juniors; and Warren Bacon and George Zurlinden were chosen to represent the Sophomores.

In presenting "Tomorrow the World," Snikpoh not only gave a superb performance but presented us with a problem—"How shall the Americans cope with Hitlerite Germany in the Post-war Period?"

The play opens in a peaceful midwestern college town in the home of a professor, Michael Frame. The professor, his energetic young daughter, Pat, the German housekeeper, Frieda, the professor's sister, Jessie, and his fiancée Leona, are anxiously awaiting the arrival of a poor little German refugee, Emil Brucker.

When Emil arrived the town was no longer peaceful. He was not a poor refugee but a Hitler Youth. Emil, then, proceeded to organize his private spy system, break up the professors engagement, kill the neighbor's dog and, in general, make himself thoroughly unpopular. The most evil of all his deeds occurred when he struck lovable Pat with a bookend.

However, it ended with Emil feeling very remorseful and although the problem was by no means solved, there was a hope for the future

Clarion Annual Staff

Beverly Davies, editor; Bob Weber, manager; Buster Wilson, photographer

Despite the last minute rush in 105 to meet the March 15 deadline, work was started early in the summer when Editor Davies conferred with the adviser, Miss Roberts, about the 1945 Clarion. Early fall found the staff organized in home room 105. Don McAllister, a newcomer to Salem high, soon began work on the cover and Emerald Pickett, another art student designed various layouts. Sports Editor Joe Carroll planned his section and he and Bus Wilson were often seen outside trying to get the action shots that appear on pages 98-99. In December senior pictures and individual writeups were arranged by Lillian Hoffman, Barbara Hoadley and Grace Ashford. Unfortunately the group picture schedule did not coincide with our good weather, and much confusion resulted spite of well made plans. No sooner was the football section completed than basketball pictures had to be taken. In February Bev completed the three dummies. Pat Pearson and Joe Carroll began to mount and arrange the pictures, most of which were taken by Bus Wilson. Marvel DeGuire, Helen Shepard, Lois Burris and Lee Nash assisted with the final writeups while Pat Pearson and Jean Hatfield spent much of their time typing the copy. Other members who deserve special mention are Pat Larson, Mary Elizabeth Reinhart, Vinita Howard, Cathy Moran, Carolyn Davis, and Don Johnson.

Bob Weber, his staff, and Mr. Doughton deserve praise for financing this 1945 year book.

Clarion Newspaper Staff

Marilyn Archibald, manager; Donna Lutz, editor.

Throughout the year, up and down the halls of Salem High school, Clarion reporters scurried here and there, busily engaged in trying to meet the deadline with their stories.

The editorial staff, on the other hand, could be found in room 202 fuming because these selfsame stories were not in on the deadline.

Nevertheless, the school paper is the criterion of school activity and an oracle and reference on all matters of interest to students and teachers alike. And since much time and effort was spent in its editing, acknowledgement should be given to the editor, Dona Lutz; the adviser, Mrs. Leah Hogue; the news editor, Marvell DeGuire; the sports editor, Harlow Ankeny and Dorothy Richardson, Cathy Moran, Margaret Simpson and Lois Mulcahy, who did outstanding work in sports, feature and news writing.

Much credit should also be given to the Clarion manager, Marilyn Archibald and her staff without whose able efforts the Clarion could never have gone to press.

THEY SING FOR US

Salem High Victory Song

By Bob Weber

Stand up and cheer for—old Salem high,
Sing loud and clear for—our Salem high,
We'll never fear for—our Vikings strong will lead us on to victory.
They'll never falter, they'll never fall,
If we will back them one and all;
On your mark, now let's go
Hear those Viking bugles blow —
HURRAH HURRAH for Salem high!

Civics Club Carnival

The 1945 Calendar Capades was hailed as one of the best of the annual Civics Club Carnivals. Special credit should be given to Bob Weber who wrote the script, and Jean Claire Swift and Phyllis Schnell who assisted Mrs. Gertrude Smith in its direction.

Prize winning skits were as follows: Easter by Pep Club, first; May Day by Crescendo, second; Thanksgiving by Home Ec, third; and July 4th by Club Philhistorian, honorable mention.

All proceeds from the Carnival were added to the J. C. Nelson Memorial Fund.

1. Queen Alice I with Crown Princesses Glenna Faye and Addyse.

CLUB NEWS BRIEFS '44-'45

The 1945 Clarion club section offers a new feature of a complete identification of club membership. Since the 1944-45 Handbook gives the complete write-ups of the various clubs, here are a few candid camera shots from here and there.

Service briefs! First we notice the Red Cross pushing ahead the sales of War bonds and stamps and filling boxes for service men. Also snapped while doing war work are the Girls Letter club girls, who have just collected 550 pounds of clothing for the Russians, and the Home Economics club sewing outfits for Russian girls. In their various chapter projects, the Tri-Y and Hi-Y are seen performing many worthwhile services. Picture after picture shows the Stagecraft group diligently preparing the stage for all our assemblies.

Entertainment features! Flash! We catch glimpses of Civics club members busily engaged in planning their colossal Carnival with the Science club members managing the concessions. February 22—and we thrill to the patriotism of the Washington's Birthday assembly, being presented by Club Philhistorian. And we won't forget the "Fun, Frolic and Antic" assembly presented by the Future Farmers, or the Red Cross talent show. And how enjoyable were those colorful concerts sponsored by Crescendo club.

Glimpses here and there! We catch the Latin club at a dinner given in Roman style, and here comes the Biology club back from a hike. Shh! Listen to the lectures being given to the Arts club on flower arranging, neon signs, and landscape gardening; to the Spanish club on various Latin-American countries; and to Aesculapians on the fundamentals of nursing.

Hear that dreamy music! It might be coming from the Hi-Y Sweetheart dance, the Tri-Y "Sophisticated Lady" dance or the "S" club dance.

One of the last assemblies of the year! It's the annual award assembly in which many clubs including Honor Society, Commercial Club, and Home Economics club give awards to outstanding students.

DESPITE A THRILLING TAKE-OFF with two straight wins over Milwaukie and Lincoln by scores of 18-6 and 20-18 respectively, Tom Drynan's boys ended up with a so-so season with four wins and six defeats.

Number three game with Klamath Falls spelled trouble for the Vikings. Not only did they lose 18-0, but injuries of the game were high. Casualties were Tom Boardman, Ev Staats, Bob Weber, and Mel Hilfiker.

The next game with Albany found the Vikings at half strength and again on the short end by a score of 7-0. Then the Vikings took a trip to see and play Corvallis and all they could see was Lee and their third straight defeat by a 13-6 score.

But when Oregon City came to town, it was a different story. The Vikings showing real power, went over the top with a 20-8 win.

Tom Drynan's boys then went to Bend and ended up with a defeat of 13-6 although the Viks outplayed them. Next in line was a win from Astoria 9-0 and a loss to the mighty men of Eugene 25-0.

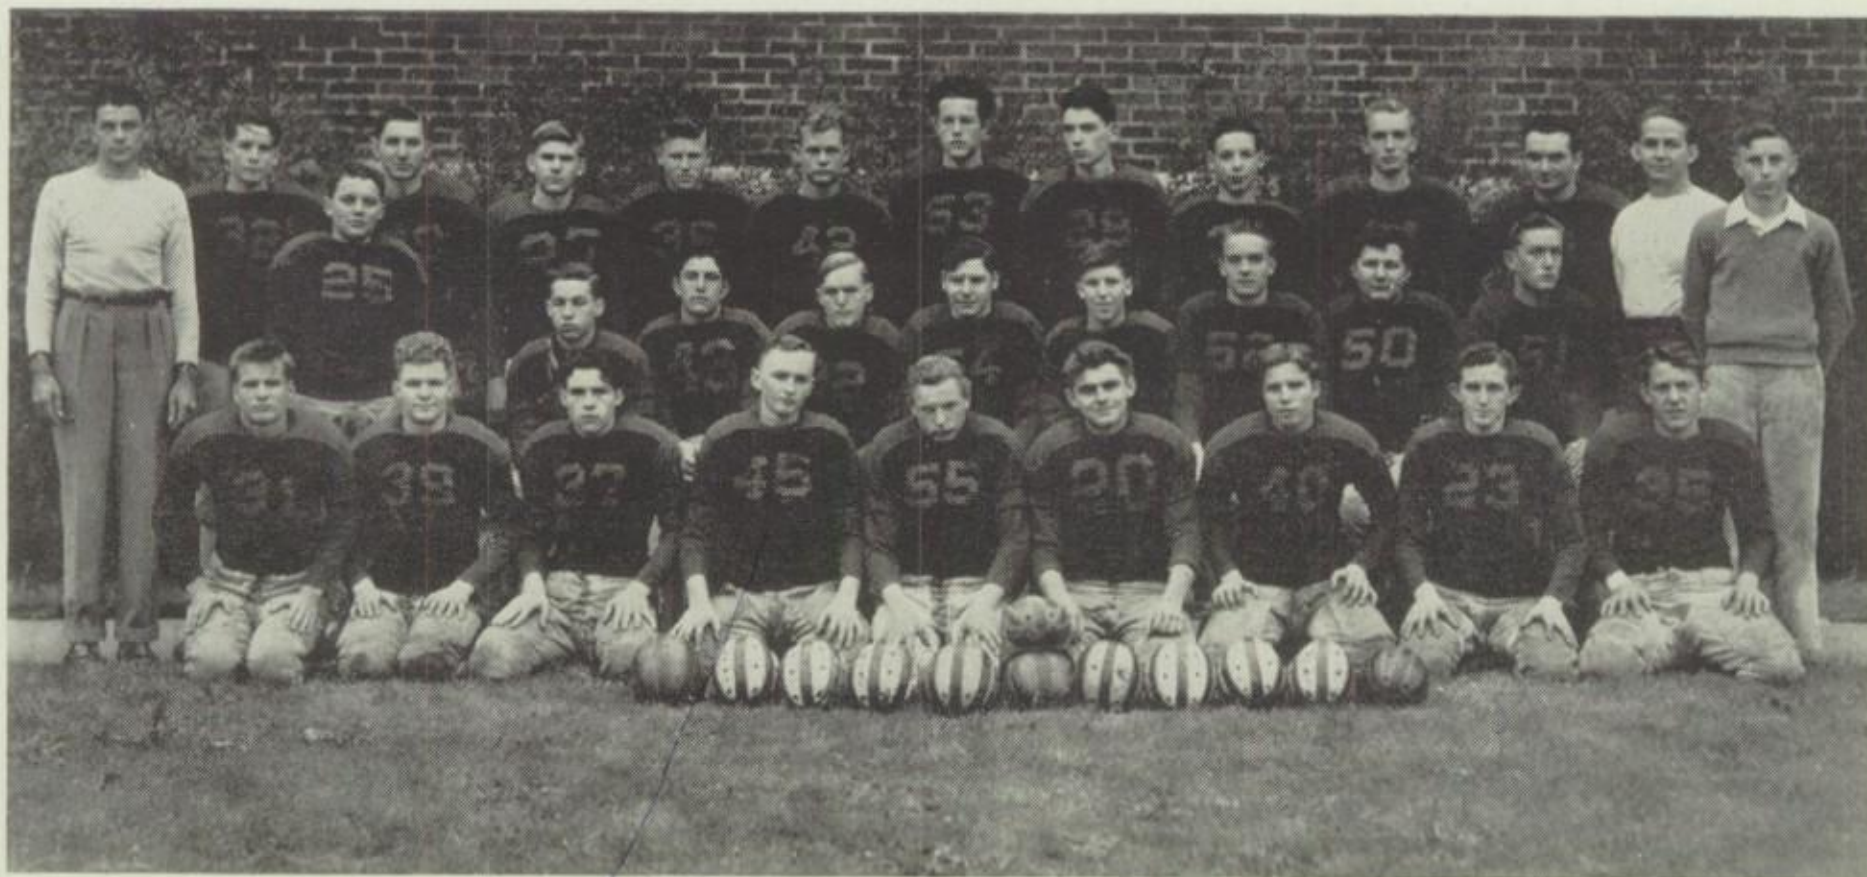

Many of the Viks had injuries as they went into the last game with Central Catholic of Portland. Among them were Ev Staats and Jack Slater playing with bandaged hands. After the battle was over the Viks were on the short end for the sixth time this season 26-6.

The Salem Varsity, although on the hustling side all season, wound up their season with 12 wins and 21 losses. Their high point came in the district playoffs at Mt. Angel. They piled up 74 points against Mt. Angel and beat Woodburn, after the latter was on a winning streak of 17 games. In the third and final game Woodburn defeated them, thus ending Salem's four game winning streak.

Junior Al Bellinger was high scorer for the season with over 270 points. Bellinger, Helmhout, and Boardman were picked on the district team at Mt. Angel.

Rumor has it that only two or three players of '44 and '45 Varsity will return next year.

Salem High's Junior Jayvees ended a very successful season as they defeated Milwaukie's Bees by a 35-27 score.

Under the guiding hands of Herm Schwartzkopf, the Juniors won eighteen out of 22 games, and rolled up a total of 751 points to 519 for their opposition. Kenny Alberts led his teammates through the season with 162 points.

During their winning streak of 13 games they beat Springfield's Bees three times and took Sil-verton's Varsity into camp twice. Although Frank Deckebach suffered a broken collarbone, injuries were not high.

Considering their scores and the facts on Herm's Juniors, Salem's Varsity will have a very promising team next year.

The Salem Sophomore Team gained favorable publicity because of their successful record. They ended the season with twelve wins and three loses. Under the leadership of Frank Beer the Sophomores piled up 536 points against their opponents' 336.

Dasch was high scorer for the season with a total of 98 points. Hendrie was a close second with 89 points. The latter moved up to the Varsity in the late part of the season, and did a fine job.

Many of these boys were stars from junior high school and promise splendid future material for Salem's basketball teams.

TRACK 1944

COACH TOM DRYNAN at the reins again, guided the well balanced Viking team towards success, with transfers Bob Weber and Lyle Williams leading the way by garnering 124 points between them. Benny Lambert, Bob Macy, and Jim Shawver stacked up 67 1-4 points with their 1-2-3 running in the 880.

Holding up the shot put end were Melvy Hilfiker and senior Don Bisbee, and doing the broad jump were Dick Brown and Dick Gatke. Doing a fine job in the discus were Tom Boardman, Art Gottfried, Joe Formick, and Wilfred Beard. Also to be noted are Ev Staats, Willy Bach, Tom Grimm, Dave Getzen-daner, Eugene Lowe, Bruce Hamilton, Don Wilson, Norman Dalke, and Clyde Jantze.

Despite the fact that Salem ran only a good second to Jefferson for the state honors, they produced a team which will promise a successful season in '45.

GIRLS SPORTS

One of the most necessary and important features of girls in Salem High may well be classified as Girls Sports since it has for its purpose the development of good health, true sportsmanship and an appreciation for the out of doors.

More than twenty different kind of sports have been organized for Salem High girls and not only are they coached in these but competitive games are arranged for after school and during the noon hour. This year there were three volley ball play days; one was held at Dallas, one at McMinnville, and the other in Salem.

GIRLS LETTER CLUB

One of the oldest, largest and most active clubs in Salem High School aptly describes the Girls Letter Club, organized for the purpose of promoting physical efficiency, health, sportsmanship, athletic accomplishments, and love of the out of doors. This year it has added to its achievements many worthwhile war projects. Among these were the making of U.S.O. scrap books and filling of Russian relief boxes for evacuees, also the collecting of clothing for Russian people. Another of their projects was the collecting of books and toys for children at the Tubercular Hospital at Christmas time.

A formal initiation was held each semester and a Spring Banquet at which the new officers were installed, the plaque and honor pins awarded. The outstanding event of the year was the Jym Jamboree held in April of which Doris Chat was chairman, Mary Lou McKay, assistant chairman; Betty Kipple, wardrobe mistress; Dona Henderson, assistant wardrobe mistress; and JoAnn Tweedie, musician. Advisers for the year were Mrs. Edith Serell, Miss Margaret Shieler and Mrs. Grace Wolgamott.
